

HALE MA'O

Act 204 mandated solar power for Hawaii's homes. Now The Gas Company is making it happen with the new Hale Ma'o program for builders, developers and homebuyers. Hale Ma'o wraps the cost of solar water heating and residential appliances in an affordable lease program. It benefits builders and developers by lowering the cost of construction. And it benefits homebuyers by lowering home prices as well as providing efficient appliance packages with full warranties. Homeowners win. Builders and developers win. Hawaii wins.

Hale Ma'o is rolling out now.

Using gas for heat energy makes most sense. Gas is cleaner — as little as 40% of the carbon output of electricity for the same tasks. Gas is cheaper — as low as 25% of the cost of electricity for the same tasks. Gas is reliable — when the lights go out, the gas stays on. Next to the sun itself, gas is the best source of heat energy in and for Hawaii.

We mean satisfaction — and we want yours.
